year•book (yêr' book'), n. a book published yearly, especially one giving statistics and data of the preceding year; annual: abbreviation Y.B.

According to Webster, this is the definition of a yearbook. However, there are many more things such a book does than just give statistics and data. It is a gateway to the future. It is a way for humanity to be immortal. It is a way to show the future the past's mistakes and hope they do not make the same as we did. All these ideals are what we have in mind when we put this book together.

Many people were afraid that our memories would never get on paper for the future and would be lost forever. People were afraid that everything that has happened on Bethany's campus would never find a home in an annual. This is true that many events and occasions from the past few years will never be seen by the class of 2050.

But to this, we editors think of the one question that came to our minds when confronted with the dilemma of the BETHANIAN: Which is better, a hard copy of those memories from other people's point of view or our own?

If you were affiliated while here, you would remember the moments before the flash of the camera when the person standing beside you hit you and you screamed out in pain, forcing the cameraman to take a fourth picture. You would remember the walk back to your dorm after your freshman seminar picture when you ran into your future spouse. You would remember the parties after all your friends passed their comps and how many hours you found you could stay up in a row with no sleep.

These sorts of memories, the ones that make up your college experience, are the ones that we could never put in a book format. Those memories are the ones that make Bethany the place people return to year after year. If you do not believe us, look at a yearbook from 1901. There are pictures from Old Main's corridor which is very interesting to look at, however they mean little to today's generation, unless you know one of the students. We do not know what the attitude of the picture and why the photographer took that particular picture.

With these thoughts in mind, we editors would like to say this: do not take this yearbook as a way to step into the past and relive your college years. Those years are done and can never be brought back. Live in today. And if you wish to step into the past and remember the time you scratched your initials into the desk at Old Main during your religion class, close your eyes and you will be there again.

We are sorry for the tardiness of these books.

Sincerely,
Jen Held

Alpha Xi Delta

The Theta Chapter

President Leanne Yost
Always sisters, always friends, always Alpha Xi

By Liz DeMoss

Alpha Xi Delta is currently composed of 51 undergraduate women, and hundreds of alumnae members. The 2000 - 2001 year has been a very exciting one for Alpha Xi. In October, Alpha Xi won Greek Week and was awarded the "Golden Keg." In both the Fall and Spring semesters, we received the Anna Ruth Bourne Award, making the two semesters the third and fourth consecutive semesters to receive the award. During the 2001 Rush, we achieved quota for the fourth consecutive year. Over this year, we have had members elected Homecoming Queen, Senior Class President, and Student Government Vice - President, among many others. Through all of this, Alpha Xi has maintained its reputation for being very diverse and excelling in all things. This diversity has remained a favorite characteristic among both members and friends of Alpha Xi. In the next few years, the Delta Chapter are looking forward to even greater accomplishments.

Delta Tau Delta

The Theta Chapter

President Joel Tachoir

.....committed to lives fo excellence

140 years of Brotherhood

By Joel Tachoir

In 1858 Delta Tau Delta was founded at Bethany College. Eight undergraduates, angered by a fixed vote for a prize in oratory to be given at the Neotrophian Literary Society, the only real forum for students to practice and demonstrate skills in poetry, public speaking and writing essays, responded by forming a secret society. The purpose of the new society, known by the Greek letters

Delta Tau Delta, was to see that the Neotrophian Society was returned to a nominal democracy and delivered from the hands of the group of students who seized it.

The Fraternity was founded to right an unjust situation; Delta Tau Delta was born of knowledge that integrity is essential. The eight founders presented the first opportunity for Deltas to realize the importance of accountability, confronting the issue of the fixed contest by the students who ran the Neotrophian Society.

Delta Tau Delta is far more than a mere social organization, more than a place to live or a way to meet people. The Deltas are different from the typical social fraternity. Our mission, Committed to Lives of Excellence, is what we as a represent. Delta Tau Delta fulfills many purposes, not the least of which are sharpening its members' leadership skills and helping them launch successful careers.

Delta life provides fantastic opportunities to grow and prepare our members for personal and career development. Our members can utilize the Fraternity as a launching pad to prepare our members for personal and career development. Our members can utilize the Fraternity as a launching pad to prepare and set themselves apart from other students.

The Sisters of Kappa Delta

President April Starinsky
Sigma Xi Chapter

April Starinsky
Kristi Zelkowski

Kappa Delta is not just a combination of two Greek words; it is a spirit of love and cooperation, of hope and trust, of friendship and real sisterhood. Kappa Delta is a beautiful blending of all types of personalities, our diversity makes us the unique group that we are.

We work hard--planning philanthropic projects such as KDKing and remaining active in campus life and having a high GPA.

We play hard--winning the spirit award at Greek Week two consecutive years and having social events with fraternities.

But most importantly--we love hard. Our sisterhood is embodied by our open motto "Let us strive for that which is honorable, beautiful, and highest."

Our home at Bethany has been Kappa Delta--a place where the all the love and joy is wrapped in green and white.

Phi Mu Fraternity

Beta Nu Chapter

President Jennifer Spencer

Advisors: Sharon Bogarde and Penny Cunningham

By Kelly McGrew

The Sisters of Phi Mu Fraternity have enjoyed a successful and busy year. The house is made up of a diverse group of girls with many different interests and talents. They represented Bethany and contributed time and talents in almost all campus club, on athletic teams, in the theater, and in the classroom. Throughout the year, they have contributed to their national philanthropies, Children's Miracle Network and Project HOPE, as well as other charities and causes by participating in activities such as penny drives and canned food drives. For Halloween, the sisters dressed up and went trick-or-treating in Bethany to collect donations for the children's hospitals in the Follansbee Wellsburg area. They also made items such as coloring books, boo boo bunnies and IV covers for the children and visited them at local hospitals. In the spring, the girls helped out the United Way by participating in the Walk-a-thon. Phi Mu celebrated their 149th year anniversary in March. At the Summer 2000 National

The Beta Nu Chapter of Bethany College was founded in 1939. Nationally, Phi Mu began as the Philomathean Society on January 4, 1852 at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia. Founder's Day is celebrated on March 4th, when the chapter was publicly announced. They became Phi Mu in 1904. Phi Mu's colors are rose and white and their flower is the rose caraway. Their mascot is Sir Fidel, a lion which is taken from the lions on the crest and is named from the motto, Les Soeurs Fideles.

We got spirit! Yes, we do! We got spirit! How 'bout you! Dressed in the spirit of comradery the Phi Mu sisters cheer on their competitors at the jello eating contest during Greek Week 2000. Photo by Maggie Nicholson 2000.
